OFAC and Commerce License Info

Appendix I

The OFAC license for this voyage is provided by general license in 31 CFR 515.567, allowing travel to Cuba (and travel related transactions) for participation in amateur athletic competitions. The Conch Republic Cup is a series of sailboat races, beginning on April 28, 2019, proceeding to Marina Hemingway, with most boats expected to arrive on the 29th. Then on or about May 4th there will be a race along the Malecón allowing Cuban racers to participate and an opportunity for Cuban citizens to observe the competition. The event is not intended to generate profit from its races. Any profits from the event will be donated to an organization meeting the requirements in 31CFR515.567(b)(2). All records will be maintained by the corporate office of Conch Republic Cup for each and every transaction related to this voyage for five years, pursuant to 31CFR501.601, and to furnish them upon request by the Director, Office of Foreign Asset Control, pursuant to 31CFR501.602.

Appendix II

The Commerce export license number for this voyage is provided by a rule exception, listed in 15 CFR 740.15(d)(6)(iii). The temporary sojourn is in connection with travel authorized by the Department of the Treasury, Office of Foreign Asset Control (see above), and under no circumstances will the vessel remain in Cuban waters for more than 14 consecutive days.
